

GUIDELINES AND RULES FOR TRINE PARK

GENERAL PARK RULES:

1. No hunting, trapping or pursuit of any wildlife.
2. No destruction, removal or injury to any trees, flowers, plants, or rocks.
3. No littering of any type.
4. No destruction, removal, or defacing of equipment and structures.
5. All pets must be on a leash and under control. Owners are responsible for cleaning-up after all pets.
6. All children under the age of 6 (six) must be accompanied by a responsible person.
7. Pavilions may be rented, and therefore reserved to renters; however, park areas surrounding the pavilion shall remain open to the general public.
8. All motor vehicles shall be parked in designated parking areas. No motorized vehicles of any type allowed on other park areas. This includes ATV's, motorized scooters, motorcycles, trailbikes, snowmobiles or other motorized vehicles.
9. No alcoholic beverages of any type allowed on the grounds.
10. No overnight camping.
11. No fireworks of any type allowed on the grounds.
12. No open fires other than in a grill.
13. No skateboards, skates, in-line skates, or roller blades permitted.
14. No obscene, loud, or offensive noise.

GUIDELINE FOR PAVILION RENTAL

1. Rental fees shall be $75.00 for large pavilion and $60.00 for small pavilion for residents, and $90.00 for large and $75.00 for small for non-residents, plus a $50.00 security deposit will be returned if area is cleaned to the satisfaction of the Borough. Renter is responsible for cleaning up all debris and/or trash resulting from their activity, and placing trash in trash receptacles. Borough will supply trash bags. No staples are allowed to be put on any table or part of pavilion. All tape, balloons, tablecloths, signs, etc. are to be removed.
2. Priority for renting the pavilions shall be given to public during January and February of the calendar year. The restrooms will be available April through October (weather permitted).
3. The Borough shall post the name of the renter in a conspicuous place on the pavilion, so that outside visitors will know the pavilion is rented for the day.
4. Once Borough receives the rental fee, the renter shall be entitled to the pavilion area for the entire day, dawn to dusk.
5. The Large Pavilion area is limited to approximately 90 persons and the small is approximately 40 persons.
