

Lois Stoner was born September 14, 1947, in the Carlisle Hospital to parents Ernest and Alice Crosley, as their only child. She grew up in Plainfield and attended Big Spring High School, graduating in the Class of 1965.

After graduation, Lois went on to attend the Joan-Lee Beauty School in Carlisle. While attending beauty school, she worked for Erie Frequency Control from 1965 to 1969. In 1969, Lois went to work at Delene Beauty Salon in Carlisle, where she met her future husband Marlin Stoner who owned the salon.

Lois and Marlin married in the United Methodist Church on Chestnut Street in Mt Holly Springs on April 2, 1972. In 1977, the couple purchased their home and moved their salon to North Baltimore Avenue in Mt Holly Springs. Today, they continue to work as hairstylists along with Sherry Boyles.

Lois and Marlin have attended the Mt Holly Church of God since 1990 and are actively involved in their church and community. Lois is currently serving on MHS Borough Council, MHS Park and Rec, MHS Business Association, MHS Lion's Club, and as an election inspector for Cumberland County. She also serves the community by being involved with MHS Community Events throughout the year which includes our Halloween Parade, Holly Festival Days, Holly Decorating Contest, and Holly Appreciation Day. Lois had an acting role in the "Holly Heroines" play this past April with the start of MHS Sesquicentennial Celebration.

Lois also enjoys crafts and painting as her hobbies with any spare time she has and has no plans for retirement.
